

Proteus MMX Customer Care

Eagle Technology

makes it easy for users to get up and running or troubleshoot problems

■ Consulting & Project Management

Eagle Technology, Inc. offers a 365-degree consulting services to ensure your CMMS implementation is successful. Our consulting services will save you time and money and will ensure you get your CMMS implementation off on the right foot.

To ensure our customers realize the full potential of their Proteus solution, Eagle offers CMMS Project Management Services during the implementation phase. Once an implementation plan is created, it must be managed and tracked. Eagle Technology's proven approach to project management and its successful track record will help to ensure that your project will achieve the desired result.

■ Implementation

Guarantee a successful, start to finish Proteus implementation with ProStart from Eagle Technology. ProStart ensures timely installation and helps customers get up and running quickly

■ Data Import/Conversion

Importing your data from an existing system to Proteus MMX is vital for a smooth transition. Eagle has developed a reliable Data Import and Conversion process for your vital data which can extract data from a variety of applications, we can even convert data from some of our competitors' databases

■ Training

Eagle also has excellent support staff who is ready to help you learn the software as quickly and painlessly as possible! Well-trained employees ensure our Proteus solutions are successful and your organization starts reaping the benefits of a CMMS immediately. Eagle provides 2 types of training On-Site Training and Web-Based Training